FOUR CAPTURED AS OVERLAND BANDITS

Ogden Police Arrest Men as They Sleep for Robbery of Limited at Reese.

OGDEN (Utah), January 14.—W. Lewis, Peter Murphy, H. Shaffer and Thomas O'Dell were arrested to-day by Chief of Police Browning, Captain of Police Brown, Detective Pender and Sheriff Harrison.

The police say they have the men who planned and committed the hold-up and robbery of twenty-five passengers on the Overland Limited at Reese, nine miles west of this city, on the night of January 1st.

William Davis, a Pullman porter, was killed, and A. W. Taylor, another porter, was wounded in the hold-up.

A beneficiary of the robbery disclosed the identity of the men to detectives.

The loot was shipped out of Ogden a week ago. Detectives were ordered to leave this afternoon in an effort to recover the jewelry.

The four men were arrested this morning in a lodging house. They were caught in bed.

Murphy and Lewis tally with the descriptions furnished by the train crew of the Limited.

The crew will arrive in Ogden tomorrow morning to identify the prisoners.

Engineer Rouse positively identified Murphy as the "tall" robber.

Conductor Middleton and Brakeman Hancock, who accompanied the robbers through the coaches when they took passengers' money and jewelry, are expected in Ogden in the morning, and it is upon their identification that the police are depending.

In Shaffer, aged 23 years, the police are of the opinion that they have one who will be able to throw much light on the robbery. A bartender, he came here from Butte.

"The boy," as he is called by his companions, exhibited nervousness this evening when questioned.

One of the strangest bits of evidence the police have against the men is a Pullman pillow case, much soiled with dirt and grease, found in their room.

It is believed to be the one carried by Brakeman Hancock when collecting loot from the passengers.

Two mud-covered overcoats with much grease splashed upon them were also found in a closet.

For more than a week neither Murphy nor Lewis left the room in which they were arrested, food being brought to them by Shaffer and O'Dell.

They told Mrs. J. H. Laibrum, the landlady, when they took the room that they "might do a little 'baching.'"

WELLS-FARGO THIEF CONFESSES GUILT

Charles Newsome, Brought Back to Stockton, in Peni-

1911.

Special Dispatch to "The Examiner."]
STOCKTON, April 8.—Charles Newsome, who robbed Wells, Fargo & Co. of approximately $1,000 while in their employ and then escaped to New Orleans, has been returned to this city, and unless he changes his mind will lead guilty to the charge of embezzlement which the company has preferred against him.
Young Newsome was brought home last night by Deputy Sheriff George Black. Newsome was in a penitent mood when placed in a cell. He confessed his guilt, but offered no explanation of what impelled him to steal from the company that trusted him with its funds. He simply said, "I am guilty and that's all there is to it."

A woman is believed to figure in the case. It is said that the young man became enamored of a young woman and was unable to supply her with the luxuries that she desired and robbed his employers to meet the pitiless demands of his sweetheart. When he saw that he had reached the end of the row and that it was a matter of but a few hours before his defalcation would be detected he skipped to New Orleans.

Young Newsome is well connected in the county. It is understood that his parents are unwilling to employ an attorney for him should he desire a trial.

MAR 22 1911

Dear Sir:

I want a man using at various places the names of A. Zych, Andrew Zych, A. Ziegler, A. T. Hind and probably other names. He falsely claims to be a Spanish War Veteran by the name of A. Zych. The real A. Zych lives at Silver City, New Mexico, and this man in some way became possessed of the war papers of Zych and uses that name and those papers in his crooked work of obtaining money from Comrades and others. The man is also wanted in New Mexico for forgery, and is an all around crook. He is about 38 years of age, 6 feet, or 6 feet one inch in height, stands erect and walks with a military carriage and moves quickly. Has keen piercing eyes, color of eyes unknown but thought to be blue or grey. Weighs about 180 pounds. Smooth shaven, hair cut rather short, rather ruddy complexion. The next to the little finger on the right hand has recently been injured and he was wearing a rubber stall on it when last seen. If hand is bare, the injury to the finger will still show as it is jambed so as to break the skin on both sides of the nail.

He works as a hair dresser and sometimes bleaches the hair of women of the half world. He is a smooth talker. Among his clothing is an Army <sup>coat</sup> coat, high shoes, corduroy trousers and a cow boy hat, which he wears as times. Sometimes he wears a brown or dark blue suit.

He will likely try to raise money soon as he was broke lately. Was recently in Sacramento and San Francisco, though his present whereabouts are unknown.

If found, arrest this man, hold him and notify me by wire at my expense. I hold a felony warrant for him.

Yours respectfully,

P. S:

Has U.S. Marshal's badge and represents himself as U.S. Marshal and U.S. Secret Service Officer.

VEALE AS AVENGING CUPID MAKES GOOD

Contra Costa Sheriff's Bonds
Gladly Donned by Fleeing
Swain of Antioch.

[Special Dispatch to "The Hammer."]
EL PASO, April 22.—Sheriff Vale of Contra Costa county came into El Paso to-day like an avenging spirit, and will depart in the morning as gay as a wreathed Cupid.

With the Sheriff will go back to Contra Costa county Robert Paul Campbell, a well-to-do farmer of Antioch. On his return there will be a wedding. Miss Lottie Sole of San Leandro will be the blushing bride. Miss Sole was at school in Antioch when she met Campbell, thirty-six years old, a typical gay bachelor, prominent as a Mason and Native Son, with a tendency to play the ponies and be a hale fellow in the cafes.

The school miss fell in love with the dashing ranchero. According to her tale, he proposed marriage. She trusted him to the full, like other young maids, until she found too late that men betray.

Then she went with her woes to the District Attorney. The District Attorney went to Campbell, who promised to set the wedding day and mend a broken heart.

Instead of that, he hastily sold his personal effects and failed to keep his appointment. Thereupon Sheriff Veale was brought into the case with a warrant. He offered a reward of $100 for the capture of the levitating Lothario.

Then came the story of a second romance. Campbell was paying devoted attention to Mrs. Blanche Fair

Hamilton, a widow with some money. It was said he intended to marry her as soon as she had mourned her former husband for a year.

The Sheriff decided he could snare Campbell if he could trace Mrs. Hamilton. She had lived in Stockton, but there it was said she had gone to San Jose.

At San Jose it was learned she had gone to 132 Sunnyside avenue, Oakland. The Oakland police learned she had gone to her father, W. H. Fair, at Venice, Los Angeles county, but her father declared she had come to El Paso to set up a millinery business.

So the El Paso police were notified. Sure enough, they found Campbell living in El Paso under an assumed name.

He soon admitted his identity, and Sheriff Veale's search since February 6th was at an end.

"I'll not fight extradition and I'll marry the girl when I get back," Campbell said when he saw the Sheriff.

So all may be well because of the happiness of the ending of the school-girl's romance with a gay bachelor of thirty-six.

Second Issue.

April 20, he hired a rancher to drive him into Auburn to catch train No. 5 for Sacramento.

April 29, he was seen on train No. 3, going to San Francisco. He was wearing a new suit of gray clothes.

Raffleton's body was found ten days later with his head crushed in.

We have plenty of evidence that he stole the following articles from Raffleton:

1 L. C. Smith hammerless shot gun, 12 gauge sawed off barrel.

1 38-40 Marlin rifle, old model.

1 open faced gold watch, 23 jeweled, Vanguard movement; case No. 1938066.

1 38 calibre Bulldog revolver.

1 plain gold ring.

1 large nugget pin.

Three small nugget pins.

Several loose nuggets, some with quartz in.

1 deer hide, tanned, with hair on it.

Please watch all Pawn Shops for the above named articles.

I want this fellow, and want you to help me get him. I hold warrant for murder and will pay $50.00 for his arrest, regardless of a conviction.

Wire any information at my expense.

JUN 6 1911

Riverside, California, June 5th, 1911.

On June 1st, 1911, two Italians came to Riverside and went to the house of John Fararro to buy his ranch at an agreed price of $5000, which amount was to be paid on June 2nd. Each party was to put $4000 in cash in a tin box, which was furnished by the two Italians. In case either party refused to carry out the agreement the whole amount of the $8000 was to go to the other party. The $8000 was put in the tin box and put in a valise which the two Italians brought with them. They were then to go together to the Citizen's Bank of Arlington and leave the tin box containing the $8000 until the next day when the sale was to be consummated. After talking a few minutes, one of the Italians took out a tin box, supposed to contain the $8000, and said to John Fararro, "You keep the tin box until tomorrow and we will return to make final payment on the ranch." On the morning of June 2nd, Fararro deposited the tin box in the Arlington Bank and on the morning of the 3rd of June, the two Italians not appearing, John Fararro went to the bank to get his tin box and upon breaking open the same found it to contain about 200 iron washers, a stone and a piece of brick. The two Italians are described as follows:

No. 1. Called Louie, Age, 38; Height, 5 feet, 7 or 8 inches; Weight, 155 pounds; small sandy mustache, sandy hair, cut short; complexion, light; first finger gone on left hand, wore diamond ring, wore black suit, black soft hat, black shoes.

MURDERER TO BE EXTRADITED

Italian Accused of Shooting
Three Men Arrested in Colorado.
Bulletin 6/5/12.

Giaccchino Lananna, alias Joachino Lananni, wanted in this city for murder, and a man for whom the local police have been making a nation-wide search, was arrested in Pueblo, Colo., last night and an officer will leave tomorrow morning for Colorado to bring Lananni back.

Lananni was the principal actor in a tragedy enacted during a wedding ceremony at the New California Dance Hall, Francisco and Mason streets, on the night of June 18, 1911, when two men were shot and instantly killed, and a third was so badly wounded that he will be crippled for life. Angelo Lombardi was arrested soon after the shooting and for his share in the crime was given eighteen years in the penitentiary at San Quentin, but Lananni made good his escape.

On the night of June 18, 1911, Mary Martini became the wife of Joseph Gurso, the proprietor of the California Dance Hall. After the wedding and while everybody was dancing somebody came upon the floor swinging a live snake about his head and the women of the wedding party became panic stricken and fled into the street. The men drew revolvers and commenced to shoot and after the smoke of battle had cleared away it was found that Eugene Basso, the man who brought in the live snake, had been killed instantly; Antonio Goletti was so badly wounded that he only lived a few days, and Ralph Brignolli was suffering with what were believed to be mortal wounds. He recovered, however, but will be crippled for life.

about 25 years; height about 5 feet 8 inches; weight about 150 pounds. Has dark eyes; dark hair, worn long; pimply face, caused perhaps by black heads; possibly a squint of eye, but not sure. When last seen wore a dark suit, and escaped without a hat. This man is a Sicilian, and a ship scraper by occupation. May be found among his countrymen or along the water front. Speaks fair English.

During a fight on the evening of Monday, June 19, 1911, while at a dance at 2239 Mason street, in this city, Lananna and his partner, Lombardi (whom we have in custody), commenced shooting, and as a result three men were wounded and one of them, Eugene Basso, has since died.

We hold warrant charging murder, sworn to before Hon. J. J. Sullivan, Judge Police Court No. 2, in this city, county and state. If arrested, hold and wire me and I will send an officer with proper papers.

GENTLEMEN:

I am desirous of calling your attention to the fact that I am operating offices at points that have heretofore been considered by criminals the only safe outlets in the United States; namely, Atlanta, Ga.; Tampa, Fla., and Havana, Cuba. Geographical notes and a knowledge of the fact that the most desperate criminals seek safety in the southern countries where there is no treaty with the United States, and in the isolated parts of the Southeastern States and Cuba, will demonstrate to you the advantage of my position. I will say, that the many years of service in this section of the country has familiarized me with all transportation companies, particularly the steamship lines running south, which are equipped with wireless telegraph. I will further state that I believe my equipment and facilities are second to none. I am in the Criminal Business proper, and am looking for new business. I am very sure that the official world will very much appreciate the services of an American officer in Cuba; particularly so if former experience can be referred to.

For services other than official, a uniform rate of $10.00 per day will be charged, and in addition such expenses as can be shown to be necessary. Official services gratis, as I am a member of the Association. I will ask that all information be accompanied by photograph, when possible. Will also ask that all information be sent to the Tampa office. Use the night letter when convenient.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration, I will close by calling your official attention to the foot-note information.

Yours very truly,

M. L. DEPEW.

Dear Sir.

The Police Department of this City, arrested a man here this morning, having in his possession the following described mare, which he was trying to dispose of to a milk dealer.

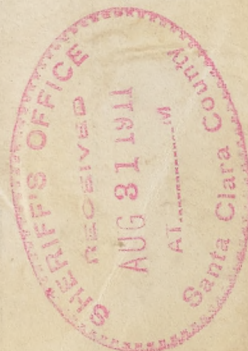

Light Roan mare; weight about 1300 pounds; white strip down face, extending over nose and mouth; 6 years old; not shod. Looked as if she might have come off pasture, as her feet were covered with marks evidently made with weeds of some sort.

This animal was put into my stable for keep, until the owner can locate and prove claim to same.

Very truly yours,

CANADA ASKED TO RETURN FUGITIVE JOHN BLACK.

SACRAMENTO, November 4.—The Department of State at Washington has been asked to issue a requisition on the Government of Canada for the return of John Black, held at Lethbridge, Canada, and wanted in San Francisco, where he was sentenced to twenty-five years in San Quentin for assault to commit robbery.

Black sawed his way out of the San Francisco County Jail, and escaped to Canada in January of this year. He had already served eight years while fighting his case in the courts and was about to be taken to San Quentin when he escaped.

JAIL-BREAKER BLACK CANNOT BE BROUGHT HERE

Nothing in Law That Permits
His Extradition From Canada.

(Special Dispatch to The Bulletin.)
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 5.—Jack Black, under sentence of 25 years in San Quentin for assault to commit robbery, who escaped from the San Francisco county jail on January 4, this year, held under arrest in Lethbridge, Canada, cannot be brought back to California, according to a decision telegraphed to the office of the Governor late yesterday from the Department of State and Justice in Washington.

Black is wanted in California for having broken jail and also to serve out his time in the State prison, but these offenses are not mentioned in the treaty with Canada as extraditable, and Black will remain free.

JAIL-BREAKING NOT INCLUDED.

Michael Burke applied at the office of the Governor last week for extradition papers for Black. In cases where prisoners are held in foreign countries extradition is demanded by the Department of State at Washington upon application from the Governor of a State. This procedure was followed by the California authorities, and yesterday afternoon the answer came back to the effect that Black cannot be extradited because jail-breaking is not mentioned in the offenses in the treaty between this country and the Dominion of Canada.

Black broke jail in San Francisco by sawing his way out. He had confederates on the outside, and succeeded in getting away and going as far as Alberta, Canada, when he was recently arrested.

ANXIOUS TO GET HIM.

The San Francisco authorities are anxious to have him returned because he had escaped punishment for eight years while fighting his case through the courts.

He was arrested in 1904 on a charge of assault to commit robbery and sentenced to a term in the San Quentin State prison. For eight years he fought being sent to the penitentiary and succeeded in staving off commitment. When he had reached the end of his legal fight he broke jail and escaped.

Now he is free again, the treaty of the United States and Canada not covering his case.

BLACK BACK IN JAIL TELLS OF HIS ESCAPE

Pushed Over Canadian Border
Into Arms of Detectives;
Has Criminal Record.

John Black, who escaped from the county jail a year ago, while waiting for the Supreme Court to determine whether he should serve a twenty-five-year sentence for robbery, was brought back to San Francisco from Montana yesterday by Detectives Michael Burke and A. F. McPhee.

The prisoner declared that the Canadian authorities permitted the San Francisco police to "shanghai" him, by forcing him to cross the northern border into the open arms of the detectives.

Black insisted that no member of former Sheriff Tom Finn's force aided him to escape. Finn and his former chief deputy, Walter MacCauley, were the first persons to visit Black in the city prison yesterday. Finn put a reward for Black's capture.

"Finn is a fine fellow," said Black yesterday, "but it was the reward he offered that brought me back here. It proved an incentive for the Canadian authorities to deport me. They had no right to deport me, because I am a native-born citizen of Canada."

"I have heard that enemies of Tom Finn say that his men let me get out. It is true that I left the jail four days before the administrations changed. Gus Gilfeather, who threatened to beat me and punish me for exposing him, was coming in with Sheriff Eggers. I learned, and I did not want to stay there and get those beatings."

"There were other reasons. I was kept in the county jail nine years waiting for the higher courts to determine my fate. I saw no prospect of getting out before four more years. I had seen five consumptives carried out from the county jail. I began to contract consumption, and my friends offered to help me get out."

"The day before I escaped one of my friends cut a bar in one of the outside windows. About 3 o'clock in the morning I dropped from the balcony tanks to the circular room and went out through the window. I had about $100, and went to Canada. I was there one day and picked up with a gang of pickpockets who knew me."

"The jail officials recognized me and wanted the reward, and that's how I'm here."

Verendrye, drug friend. Has been in County Jail 7 years. Does not talk much and turns head when addressed. Likes to gamble and is an inveterate cigarette smoker.

Was dressed in single-breasted mixed gray suit, soft white hat with blue band and buttoned shoes.

The above is good likeness.

Escaped from County Jail in San Francisco early in the morning of January 4th, and was assisted by persons from outside the Jail.

Any person or persons furnishing information that will cause the arrest of any one of these men will receive $100.00, and for the two, $200.00, as indicated above. The informer's identity will not be revealed nor will he be called into Court or given any publicity. A couple of weeks since, two men came into Yreka and got work on a ranch near Gazelle. Before going to work, one of them borrowed $8.00 from A. C.
